
ANTON DEV CO EXPANDS WITH NEW TALENT

ANDREW BAKER TO SPEAK AT CALIFORNIA MULTIFAMILY SUMMIT

September 15, 2015 – SACRAMENTO, CA – Northern California-based real estate developer, Anton Development Company, today announced additions to the firm’s development leadership team. Andrew Baker has been named senior vice president of development & acquisitions and will manage the multifamily development platform in the Bay Area. Zach Anderson is the company’s new director of land acquisitions.

“Andrew and Zach are key team members to drive our development growth,” says Steve Eggert, Anton DevCo president. “These hires give us experience, depth and leadership.” Prior to joining Anton, Mr. Baker was vice president of development at Essex Property Trust. Mr. Baker brings over 20 years of experience in institutional investments and earned his MBA from the Haas School of Business at U.C. Berkeley. Mr. Anderson joins Anton Dev Co after successful stints at Colliers International and Cushman & Wakefield, where he represented buyers and sellers in multifamily land transactions. Mr. Anderson also earned his MBA at the Haas School of Business.

On September 24th, Mr. Baker will speak at The Northern California Apartment Summit in San Francisco, where more than 500 attendees will discuss and debate multifamily opportunities, trends and challenges. “I’m looking forward to sharing market knowledge and insight with industry leaders at this seminar,” says Mr. Baker. “Smart housing growth near jobs and transportation is vital to improve quality of life in our California communities.”
